Destination Prioritisation | Which Destinations to Prioritise?

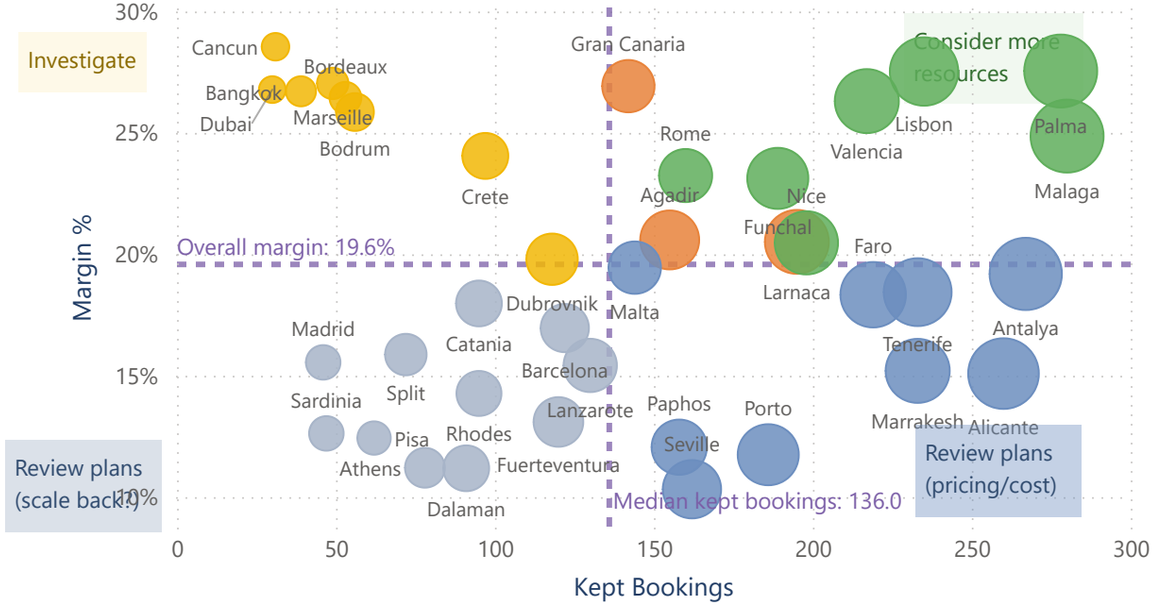

Based on 2022 departures (follows the year filter). Select filters to explore.

Departure Year: 2022 | Brand: All | Sales Channel: All | Sell Country: All | Min. kept bookings: 30

Kept Bookings	Kept sales (SEK)	Kept Margin %	Cancellation Rate
5,381	138M	19.6%	16.1%
Bookings with status "Booking" (excludes cancelled and Preliminary).	Total sales value of kept bookings in the selected period.	(Kept sales − kept cost) ÷ kept sales.	Share of bookings cancelled (Preliminary excluded).

Which destinations perform well – and where should we focus?

Each bubble is a destination. Size = kept sales. Colour = suggested outcome.

Period = departure year. Amounts in SEK (group reporting currency). Margin = contribution margin (recorded sales − recorded booking costs, no overheads). Cancellation rate excludes Preliminary bookings.

Outcomes are relative to the current filters – prompts for review, not proof of cause. Small and unassigned destinations count in the cards but are not shown here.

Context: is 2022 a reliable basis for prioritising?

Has demand returned to normal?

Kept vs cancelled bookings; orange labels show the cancellation rate. 2020–21 heavily affected by COVID.

How do customers book, by brand?

Share of kept bookings made online vs offline, all years.

Have all brands recovered?

Darker = higher cancellation rate. Read across each row to see whether a brand recovered by 2022.

Brand	2020	2021	2022
Active Breaks	60.3%	48.1%	16.2%
Blue Horizon	60.6%	46.4%	16.3%
Coastline Holidays	61.2%	47.4%	15.5%
Island Hopper	60.7%	43.1%	17.7%
